GRAND JURY FILES SHORT ALTHOUGH VIGOROUS REPORT

Recommends drastic change in County Farm; Road Houses Should be Watched

The findings of the Grand Jury of San Mateo county for the present year were filed with Superior Judge Park here last Monday. The court received the recommendations of the jury and they were discharged with thanks.

The report of the Grand Jury follows:

Report of Grand Jury Auditing

Your jury had a careful audit of the county books by a firm of competent accountants. The report is attached hereto which shows the finances of the county have been honestly and accurately recorded during the twelve-month period, ending December 31, 1923 with the exceptions following:

Justices of the Peace 1922.

The Grand Jury report of last year now on file in the office of the County Clerk disclosed that a shortage of $22.00 existed in the accounts of Justice Woodhams, therefore there is due from him on the twelve-month period, ended December 31, 1923, the amount of $22.00.

Justice of the Peace 1923.

This examination disclosed the following shortage to have existed in the turn-ins of the Justices of the Peace for the twelve-month period, ended December 31, 1923. Justice Edward Ferrill $11.00.

While these are minor matters and probably due to bookkeeping errors, they should receive attention of the officials named.

The total receipts of each justice on account of fines and fees for the twelve-month period, ended December 31, 1923, may be stated as follows:

Justice Griffin, $4,906.00; Justice Bird, $1,650.00; Justice Farrell, $181.00; Justice Lamb, $445.00; Justice Johnson, $203.00; Justice Borden, $163.25; Justice Woodhams, $33.00; Justice Pitcher, $2.45; As a contract to the income from the sources the expenses for maintaining the Justice Courts for the same period as disclosed in our former report being submitted under separate cover was $13,913.55.

In these comments it is not forgotten that the purpose of the Justice Courts is not to produce revenue for the county, but is, rather for the purpose of protecting the life and property of the people of the county. Notwithstanding this, however, it would seem that under the present arrangements, for instance, the office of the county auditor is run on a short-handed, and the offices of the Justices of the Peace are full to overflowing, so that it is suggested that if the protection to the person and property of the people of the County of San Mateo be not thereby jeopardized, a movement be instituted looking to legislation which would allow of at least one additional permanent assessor in the office of the County Auditor, and probably the elimination of at least one or more Justice Courts. Such plan would serve the county better in that it would relieve the present congestion in the office of the County Auditor and thereby enable the auditor and deputies to have that relief which we feel that they are justly entitled to, and would at the same time accomplish this without added cost to the county.

Community Hospital

In our visits to the Community hospital we found conditions all we could desire and the buildings well equipped to handle its patients.

Juvenile Home

The visit of the Grand Jury to the Juvenile Home and the County Clinic found conditions most satisfactory and both institutions reflecting great credit on the superintendents in charge.

Sheriff's Office

The Grand Jury recommends that the sheriff of said county be allowed three (3) more assistants as the present force is insufficient and has difficulty in doing justice to the office. The jail was visited and found in first class condition.

Public Resorts and Dance Halls

Your Grand Jury has discussed conditions at public dance halls and resorts with the Sheriff and the District Attorney. The District Attorney advises that the county is at present without proper ordinances.

The worst thieves never are arrested. They are the thieves of time.

VALUABLE GIFT TO U. C.

Miss Cora Jane Flood of Menlo Park has presented the University of California the old Flood property at 2120 Broadway, San Francisco. The property runs clear through the block, has a frontage of 137 feet on Broadway, and is valued at $250,000. The regents may sell or lease the place, the only stipulation being that it shall not be used for purposes that would be distasteful to the neighbors. The income from the property is to be used for the benefit of the College of Commerce.

Miss Flood has already endowed two chairs at the university and has given largely to the institution.

About twenty-five years ago Miss Flood gave the Flood place at Menlo Park, which had been left to her by her father, to the State university. It was her intention that it should be used for agricultural and horticultural purposes. After holding it for some time the university authorities sold it to Mr. James L. Flood, the brother of the donor, for $300,000.

Sixty-one of the crack degree team, officiated with each contesting set of officers. These two teams with others will again meet at the State Aerie at San Bernardino in June. It is estimated that 750 were in attendance. A banquet and entertainment followed the ritualistic ceremonies.

J. C. HAYS DIES IN SANTA MONICA

Mr. J. C. Hays, father of Mrs. A. McCrea, and Mrs. Walter Reink, passed away very suddenly in Santa Monica Wednesday. Mr. Hays had lived in Redwood City for more than a year. Last June he and his wife made a trip to Santa Monica to visit their old home. They returned to California in November and since that time have made their home with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Wilson in Santa Monica. The deceased was 72 years of age at the time of his death.

Mrs. Walter Reink and Mrs. Alva McCrea left Thursday for Santa Monica to attend the funeral of their father.

Joint sessions will open today and continue until Thursday. The law provides that county officials shall attend their respective State conventions, their expenses being paid by the counties in which they hold office.

MARKED GAIN SHOWN AUTO REGISTRATION

A report made public this week by Will H. Marsh, chief of the California Division of Motor Vehicles, shows a total of 8621 motor vehicles were registered in San Mateo county during 1923. This total is exclusive of trailers, nonresident and dealers registrations and exemptions. Registrations for the county were as follows: automobiles, 8,621; trucks, 589; motorcycles, 144; trailers, 51.

The division collected a total of $9,756,789.44 during the year in motor vehicle taxes. This money will be divided between the state and county highways, half by the state and half by the county. This county's share of the revenue will be $42,725.99.

The auto registration for the entire state is given as 1,114,977. This is divided as follows: "Pleasure cars, 1,056,766; trucks, (solid tire) 43,527; motorcycles, 14,684."

Passenger cars showed the greatest gain, there being 234,362 more registered in 1923 than during the previous year. Based on census figures of 1920, the report said there is one private passenger car for every 3.2 persons in California.

Figures from other states indicate that California now leads in number of pleasure cars, Marsh stated, in commenting on the report. Since 1923 registrations of passenger cars included all pneumatic tired vehicles, it is impossible to arrive at the exact figures, he added.

All counties of the State showed substantial gains in passenger cars and trucks. An approximate loss, however, of 15 per cent in motorcycle registrations over 1923 was reported.

Los Angeles County led all other counties in registrations with a total of 430,335 motor vehicles for the year, a gain of 124,015 over 1922. Registration of passenger cars from the southern county amounted to 410,517. Alpine county was lowest with a total of 34, a gain of four over 1922.

SCULPTOR ARRESTED CHARGED WITH BURGLARY

Dennis Brusco, giving his occupation as a sculptor, was taken into custody Wednesday in this city on a charge of burglary, following the robbery of the home of P. Daney, Redwood City tannery worker.

The local boys led until the last five minutes of the game at which time the visitors made a mad dash for victory by scoring in scoring two points over the Redwood team.

The line-up of the local team was as follows: Deluchi, forward; Locatelli, forward; Robertson, center; Mitchell, guard; Thompson, guard; Kreiss and Scherer, reserve.

SHRINERS TO BUY A REDWOOD TRACT

Islam Temple of the Mystic Shrine of San Francisco has entered into negotiations with J. A. Hooper for the purchase of his 1080 acre tract and with the West Shore Timber Co. for a 320-acre tract, contiguous to the same on the headwaters of the Pescadero Creek. The property is the finest stand of Redwood in this section of California and has been kept intact by its owners because of the great value of the forests growing thereon. It is situated in the Alameda district, and will be a wonderful week-end outing places when the Skyline Boulevard has been completed.

The Hooper tract is better known as the old Chris Iverson place, and Iverson's old log cabin is still standing close to the beautiful lodge where Mr. Hooper spends his summers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Davis are in charge of the properties and many Redwood City people have often shared their hospitality in this wonderful land of the shriners.

It is reported that the Supervisors of San Francisco county are contemplating the purchase of timbered tracts adjoining this property and which also adjoins the California Redwood Park for a week-end camp for San Francisco.

Frank Keesling and Charles A. Adams are acting for the shriners in their negotiations.

HIGHWAY UNDER REPAIR

The State highway in the town limits of Redwood City is now undergoing repairs that when completed will make it comparable with any stretch along the peninsula. The work is being done by the county under the supervision of John MacLish, supervisor of this township. The section underlying repairs will include all the highway between the city limits on the north, at Finger creek and Davies machine shop at Yere avenue and includes a new surface on the entire road. Work is now progressing on the southern part of the district and vehicles are being diverted from the highway through town.

WRECK ON HIGHWAY FATAL TO RANCHER

A wreck of a light truck in which was riding a young fatal to E. Ganett, San Carlos rancher and berry grower last Monday. Ganett was riding in the truck belonging to himself and his partner, William Allen, and driven by the latter. The truck had just crossed the bridge at the northern limits of Redwood City when the snapping of a defective link in the steering gear caused it to swerve directly across the highway and right in front of a car driven by William B. Courtney of Hollywood.

In the crash that ensued Ganett was hurled through the windshield and crushed between the two cars. Allen received two broken ribs and Courtney escaped with some minor injuries. The three men were hurried to the hospital by residents of the neighborhood, who attracted by the crash hurried to the scene to find what was the cause of the disturbance.

Ganett was a native of Italy and 40 years of age. He leaves a wife and five young children. An inquest held last Wednesday determined the cause of his death to have been accidental. An investigation into the case by the Sheriff showed that Courtney was driving within the law and that the wreck was unavoidable.

MARCH 8 DATE OF BAIL PARK ELECTION

At a special meeting of the board of trustees of Redwood City it was agreed to hold an election for the purpose of voting on the purchase of the baseball field. The tract of land now belonging to the Sequoia Union High School District but must be sold to finish paying for the new school. The trustees of the high school are holding the tract, however until the town has a chance to purchase it, as it is a choice location, which would be a decided asset to the town.

A trouble-shaker has it all over a trouble-maker.

NEWS OF WOODSIDE

Mr. F. A. Zane and family, whose home here was burned to the ground a few weeks ago, have taken their temporary residence at the corner of Atherton avenue and the Highway at Atherton. Plans are being prepared for the construction of a new home on the old site.

Rev. Benjamin St. John will give an illustrated lecture at the church on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The subject is, "Boys and Girls Abroad." The lantern slides are new and the lecture promises to be interesting. All are invited.

Mrs. Wm. Roth came down on Friday the week end and at her home here in Woodside.

Lincoln's birthday was celebrated with an appropriate program at the local school on Tuesday and a large Valentine box opened on Thursday afternoon contained many tokens of friendship among the children.

Miss Hazel Wolfe gave a Valentine party to her school mates on Thursday afternoon and practically all the children of the school were present to make inroads upon the large stacks of cake, icecream and candy provided for them in the room.

Tony Dido is celebrating with his friends the advent of a new member of his family, a son born on Saturday last.

L. C. Burnett has purchased a tract of land in the rear of the place he now has under lease and will improve it for a permanent residence.

Lucius Morse, our local radio expert, has designed a new type of receiver upon which he has applied for a patent. It combines extreme simplicity of construction with extraordinary receiving range. Mr. Morse has been an active student of radio for many years and has done much experimental work. This finished product of his labors should be abreast of the newest appliances in radio reception.

Mrs. Mortimer Fleishacker came down from San Francisco on Friday. She brought several guests with her and entertained them to luncheon at her home here.

The acacias are coming into bloom and the hillsides are dotted with great yellow speckles as bright in the sunshine as the yellow gold itself.

Redwood Boy Dies in Navy

The funeral of George Otto Boos, well-known Redwood City man, who passed away in the Virginia Islands in the service of the United States Navy, was conducted last Thursday by the members of the local post of the American Legion. The services were held in the chapel of the James Crowe Undertaking Company and were conducted by Rev. M. B. St. John of Woodside and Rev. E. H. Molony of Redwood City. Six friends of the deceased, members of the American Legion, acted as pall bearers. They were: Willis Bloomquist, Eric Thompson, Stanley Mullon, Wray Hildebrand, Frank Thompson and Bill Schweigert.

Boos, who had been in the naval service for eight years was one of the crew of the U. S. S. Jackson. He was taken ill and was to have been sent for medical aid to Philadelphia, but died at Culabra in the Virgin Islands.

The deceased was born in Redwood City and was 24 years of age. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Annie B. Conklin and a brother, John S. Boos. Another brother, Herman J. Boos, was also in the navy, serving on the U. S. S. California. He secured a leave of absence and brought the body of his brother home to Redwood City.

LAS LOMITAS P. T. A.

About a dozen members of the Las Lomitas Parent-Teacher Association are planning to attend the Founder's Day Tea at the Community House, Palo Alto, on Saturday afternoon. It is hoped that still more will find it possible to go. This is the seventeenth anniversary of the beginning of the National Parent-Teacher work in Washington, D. C. A silver collection will be taken up on the occasion for the circulation work of the national organization. A very agreeable program is promised.

It has been found necessary to disband the Menlo Park Troop of Girl Scouts, which has met first at the Menlo Central School, then at the Las Lomitas School, and lastly at the home of Mrs. R. M. Roberts on Santa Cruz Avenue. It has proved to be too difficult for the girls to reach a common meeting place in time for meetings. It is hoped that these girls who have learned considerable about scouting will find it possible to form new groups nearer home, or to join with some already formed in Palo Alto or Redwood City.

The Las Lomitas Parent-Teacher Association had a very pleasant meeting at the school house on Wednesday evening, February 13. The decorations made by the school children for Valentine's Day made the rooms very attractive, and the older boys who act as janitors had the building warm and bright. Matters of interest were discussed, but all important business was put over to the March meeting, as only about one-fourth of the members were present.

UHLBERG HOUSE NOT SOLD

Owing to serious inconveniences caused by a mistaken report circulated in town to the effect that he had sold his house on Warwick street and was going to move, Christian Uhlenberg declared this week that there was no foundation for the story. The Uhlenbergs are still residing at their home in Wellesley Park and not at the apartment house recently completed on Birch street, as the report would have them.

ELECTORS OF SCHOOL DISTRICT MEETING

A meeting of the electors of the Redwood City Grammar school district was held last night in the building of the Central school on Broadway. Charles Dimmitt, city engineer of Redwood City, was chosen chairman of the meeting which was called for the purpose of considering the purchase of the building vacated by the Sequoia Union High School. The building is situated just across the street from the grammar school and as the latter is in a very crowded condition the electors of the district to offer the trustees of the high school $40,000 for the property, as authorized by popular election last year. The bid was therefore drawn up and sent to the trustees of the Sequoia Union High School district.

At this meeting it was decided by the electors of the district to offer the trustees of the high school $40,000 for the property, as authorized by popular election last year. The bid was therefore drawn up and sent to the trustees of the Sequoia Union High School district.

GEORGE, WASHINGTON'S

Birthdays has come to be the national holiday on which we celebrate the truthfulness of the greatest of all great Americans. It reminds us of the better feeling that comes to each one of us when we know we have done the square thing, when we have been as fair and as honest as we know how. That is one reason why this week is a special occasion in the year's weeks with us, for it brings to mind again the host of friends of this store who have become better and better pleased with their dealings with us, knowing that we advertise as we sell, as truthfully and fairly as George Washington would if he directed our Store's policies.

SUPERVISORIAL REPRESENTATION

The people of San Mateo and Burlingame are agitating their friends and neighbors mightily just now over the subject of representation on the Board of Supervisors. They feel that with their population they should have a greater voice in county government.

There is no doubt about the growth of these two cities and we feel that their distress is nothing but an attack of growing pains. They must have something to fret about. If it isn't representation, its annexation, and if it isn't that it's city manager. As our old friend, George West, used to say, "It's one darned thing after another, and if it isn't that it's something else."

But to get back to the supervisorial end of the question. San Mateo and Burlingame are municipalities. They have city managers and town trustees to take care of their affairs. The Second township outside of San Mateo, Burlingame and Hillsborough, which are cities of the sixth class, has a smaller population than any other township in the county. There are fewer miles of road to care for. There are fewer problems to meet.

The present arrangement is equitable and just. The Fourth and Fifth townships are both entitled to their representatives and any attempt upon the part of our growing neighbors on the north to deprive them of their rights should be frowned upon by the rest of the county.

THE BIG RED BUSS

The big red busses and the big yellow fellows, too go kiting through town every twenty minutes or so and they never take the trouble to stop and give a fellow a ride, unless they happen to be about half filled.

They use the roads that the property owners of Redwood City have paid for, but do they stop for passengers. We'll say they don't. If you try to stop one the driver will put his foot on the gas and give you a little exhibition of deaf and dumb talk with his hands.

But what happens, gentle reader, to a Palo Alto passenger. He has a nice waiting station in which to rest and read. The big red buss and the big yellow buss too, drive up and load and unload passengers. There is no sign language there. Now, we want you to know that this is no kick at Palo Alto. Far be it from us to want to deprive our friends in the college town of any privileges. What we would like to see would be a good firm stand on the part of the town trustees in which they would say, "If you want to use our streets you stop and take on our people. There shall be no discrimination against Redwood City residents!"

SENATOR SHORTRIDGE ON RIGHT SIDE

We were glad to see Senator Samuel M. Shortridge take the stand he took on the Denby resolution before the United States Senate last week. Senator Shortridge knew that he was fighting for a lost cause but with the courage of his convictions he gave valiant battle to the foe and paid his respects to his brother senators who were on the other side.

Senator Shortridge told some truths that didn't set well when he reminded his confreres of the warm beds they occupied during the war days while Secretary Denby was sleeping with the rest of his buddies or doing patrol duty. It's easy to be a patriotic citizen now but Secretary Denby was patriotic when real patriotism meant something. He fought in the Spanish-American war and in the World war. He could have had a commission but he was content to do his duty as a private and later as a non-commissioned officer. Now some of the people who have never done anything more patriotic than to hold down a good political job are trying to spoil his career. We hope they won't be able to do it. We are still hoping that the president will throw the Senatorial resolution into his political waste basket.

THE PRESIDENTIAL SITUATION

Now that the "teapot" has ceased to bubble a wee bit it is not a bad idea to take stock of presidential timber for a short time. Republicanly speaking, the fight is between the President and Senator Hiram Johnson, the doughty warrior from the Golden State. There may be others, but we can't see them.

The President naturally has an edge on the situation because he is in. But Hiram has always been a good fighter. He is an indefatigable worker and has a wonderfully successful way of winning followers. He is a real contender for the throne and no one can be sure of the results until the final count is over.

California has always been loyal to her own sons and daughters, so with a strong backing from his home people Senator Johnson is a real big factor in National Republicanism this year.

WHY DO DOLLARS LEAVE HOME?

"Do you know I saw a hat at Blank's store right here in Redwood, just like the one I got in the city, and much cheaper, too. I wish I'd known Blank had it before I went to San Francisco." Ever hear a similar thought expressed? It's not an uncommon form of speech around Redwood City. And the local merchants frequently complain because people buy out of town, what they could buy right here. It does not help Redwood City any to buy in San Francisco, but who is to be blamed for conditions?

Speaking of buying—we noticed a little article in Youth's Companion that might well be read by every one who buys, and might prove of help to those who sell. It follows:

"Twenty centuries ago a Sidonian craftsman inscribed on a drinking glass these words, 'Made by Ennion, let the buyer remember.' It was the first advertisement."

"Today every manufacturer, who is really proud of his product, marks it, that all may know and identify his work. Then by advertising he throws on both product and mark the search-light of public attention. Otherwise, they loose caste in the buyers' mind. And no business can thrive under public condemnation."

"That is why a manufacturer places the reputation of his business at stake every time he advertises. He spends his money to invite your consideration of his wares, and then, perforce, must leave the final decision to you."

"And that is why it pays to be guided by advertising and to buy advertised goods."

A merchant in business has three duties to perform, one he owes to himself, one to his neighbor and the other to his town. It is a merchant's duty to himself to so advertise his business that he may prosper and enjoy life. It is his duty to his neighbor to advertise his goods that his neighbor may know where to buy what he wants, and where he can get it most cheaply. And finally; the merchant owes a duty to the town in which he lives to advertise so that the people of the town will be sufficiently informed that they can get good goods right here in town, and so will spend their money here to help develop the town in which they live.

RAVENSWOOD P. T. A.

Dr. Jerome Thomas of Palo Alto gave an interesting talk on the care of the eyes at the regular meeting of the Ravenswood Parent-Teacher Association at the school auditorium last Friday afternoon. With the aid of charts, he explained the different kinds of eye strain, their causes and results if neglected, and emphasized the importance of giving attention to the eyes of the child, as many difficulties, he said, can be corrected if proper treatment is given when the trouble is first discovered.

Dr. Pearl Hanna, Palo Alto school dentist, spoke on the importance of the care of the first teeth. She explained how the condition of the permanent teeth depends upon the care of the first set, and how this could be done by keeping the health good, by eating the proper foods and dental care.

Alfred Albertson gave a violin solo. A dime march netted $4.20 to be used to meet the expenses for the Founders' Day reception at the Community House in Palo Alto, February 16th.

A scholarship committee was added with Mrs. John Burger as chairman. Twelve dollars was voted to the Palo Alto Union Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations towards the Stanford Home for Convalescent Children fund.

Plans for Arbor Day, March 7, were made. A committee composed of Mesdames George B. Merwin, Wm. Parkin and S. N. Clelland was appointed to assist the school principal.

Team Work

of over 40,000 Californians

Brings Success

ONE can see in anything only what he knows about it. When one invests in an enterprise pains are taken to thoroughly investigate it.

The 40,000 or more Californians who own P G and E securities are informed. They know the State's system of regulation by the Railroad Commission makes the public a partner in this concern.

These customer-owners appreciate that the Public (through the Railroad Commission) actually regulates rates, service and financing.

They also know that individual initiative is encouraged—that service is more efficient when business is conducted by business men.

Such customer-ownership, because it encourages citizens to obtain facts, brings about a more cordial relationship. Misunderstandings are eliminated. Entire satisfaction is the result.

The more everyone knows about this sensible plan of operation, the more do they find in it to endorse.
